No campus office / Office hours online, by phone, and by appointment before class

Readings

We will use the following as a textbook:

Robin Winks and Joan Neuberger, Europe and the Making of Modernity, 1815-1914 ISBN: 0195156226 (paperback)

Additionally, students should purchase:

François-René de Chateaubriand, Atala-René	ISBN-10: 0520002237
Wolfgang Schivelbusch, The Railway Journey	ISBN-10: 0520059298
Mary Shelley, Frankenstein	ISBN-10: 0141439475
John Stuart Mill, On Liberty	ISBN-10: 014144147X
Marx et. al., The Communist Manifesto and other Revolutionary Writings	ISBN-10: 0451527100
George Macdonald Fraser, Flashman	ISBN-10: 0006511252
Henrik Ibsen, A Doll's House	ISBN-10: 0140441468
Walter Kaufman, The Portable Nietzsche	ISBN-10: 0140150625
Joseph Conrad, Heart of Darkness	ISBN-10: 0141441674

Public domain versions exist for many of these (for instance, on Project Gutenberg, or the free ebook sections of Google Books). This is a viable option for students on a budget, however experience has shown that a traditional copy can be superior in many ways. Most of these books should be available in used copies for under $2, if you plan ahead for the extra shipping time.

Some weeks we will read a collection of shorter works. These will be provided in a course reader downloaded from Blackboard.

Assignments

Students will be graded as follows:

30% Attendance & Participation

The Liberal Studies program places great emphasis on attendance and participation. In accordance with BALS policy, THREE absences for any reason may result in a failing grade for the entire course.

10% Précis

A précis is a 1-2 page summary of a reading. Think of it as a rewrite, or a condensed version of a source that serves as a study aide. Further details will be included in the course reader.

20% Paper 1

20% Paper 2

20% Paper 3

At a length of 5 pages, each of these papers will answer a question posed in the assignment prompt. Students will choose from among a list of readings, which will combine those in our main texts as well as additional short documents, then use those sources to answer the question.

All written work is due on the date given, and should be turned in by the beginning of class whether electronically or in person. Late papers will lose 1/3 of a grade per day late.

Academic accommodations and incompletes must be arranged formally. No incompletes will be given without approval by the deans.

Disabilities

If you are a student with a documented disability who requires accommodations or if you think you may have a disability and want to inquire about accommodations, please contact the Academic Resource Center at 202-687-8354 or arc@georgetown.edu.

Turnitin.com

Students acknowledge that by taking this course all required papers can be submitted for a Textual Similarity Review to Turnitin.com for the detection of plagiarism. Use of the Turnitin.com service is subject to the terms of use agreement posted on the Turnitin.com site.

Extreme weather, Emergencies, and Instructional Continuity

During inclement weather or other emergencies on a day when we are scheduled to meet face-to-face, check the university's Web site or call (202) 687-7669 for information on whether the university is open. If the university is open, this class will meet. If the university is closed, this class will meet through distance means such as online videoconferencing; check your e-mail for a message from me on how we will proceed in that situation. Due dates for written assignments submitted through Blackboard will not be changed due to campus closings.

The university recently has acquired the capability to send text messages and recorded messages about emergencies to cell phones and other mobile devices. Sign up on MyAccess.

Georgetown Honor System

All students are expected to follow Georgetown's honor code unconditionally. We assume you have read the honor code material located at <http://scs.georgetown.edu/academic-affairs/honor-code>, and in particular have read the following documents: Honor Council Pamphlet, What is Plagiarism, Sanctioning Guidelines, and Expedited Sanctioning Process. Papers in this course will all be submitted to turnitin.com for checking. Submitting material in fulfillment of the requirements of this course means that you have abided by the Georgetown honor pledge:

In the pursuit of the high ideals and rigorous standards of academic life, I commit myself to respect and uphold the Georgetown Honor System: To be honest in any academic endeavor, and to conduct myself honorably, as a responsible member of the Georgetown community, as we live and work together.

Plagiarism

In accord with university policy, all incidents of suspected plagiarism or other Honor Code violations will be reported to the Honor Council without fail. If the Honor Council finds that a student has plagiarized or has violated the Honor Code in any other way, the student will receive a grade of F for the course.

Policy Accommodating Students' Religious Observances

The following is university policy:

Georgetown University promotes respect for all religions. Any student who is unable to attend classes or to participate in any examination, presentation, or assignment on a given day because of the observance of a major religious holiday or related travel shall be excused and provided with the opportunity to make up, without unreasonable burden, any work that has been missed for this reason and shall not in any other way be penalized for the absence or rescheduled work. Students will remain responsible for all assigned work. Students should notify professors in writing at the beginning of the semester of religious observances that conflict with their classes.
