

Information for International Students

This program is being provided from Georgetown University, located in the United States. Degrees conferred by Georgetown University are recognized in the United States and may be recognized in other countries. Degrees and certificates conferred by Georgetown University are not officially recognized by Mexico. All international students are encouraged to research the policies pertaining to degree recognition in their home country prior to enrolling in a Georgetown program.

Students living in certain countries may be subject to additional withholding taxes in addition to the cost of tuition.

A reliable high-speed internet connection is required in order to complete the coursework for SCS's online programs. It is the student's responsibility to ensure access to a reliable and secure internet connection.

Georgetown University collects students' personal information and cannot confirm that data will be stored in students' home countries. The information will be maintained consistent with the laws of the United States. Information about Georgetown's policies on data privacy and data protection is available at <https://security.georgetown.edu/>.

This program is not able to offer internships, practicums, or any kind of field placement outside the United States. Students residing outside the United States may complete programs with optional field placements or internships. However, these students will not be able to register for an elective course that involves completing a field placement or internship. Electives not involving a field placement or internship will be available.