BLACKBOARD: We will use this resource extensively. The course page will serve as the portal for communication between the instructor and students. Also located here (under 'Addn'l Resources') are links to electronic resources associated with the text- additional problems, graphics, etc.

Grades:

A-, A	85 - 100	D, D+	50 - 57.5
B-, B, B+	75 - 82.5	F	< 50
C-, C, C+	65 - 72.5

CELL PHONES AND CALCULATORS: The use of cell phone during lecture is not permitted. If I see you 'texting,' I will confiscate the phone and deduct two points from your final average as well. For exams and quizzes, you may use non-graphing calculators only! No iPhones etc. If you are concerned as to whether your calculator is acceptable, please present it to me prior to an exam. An inexpensive scientific calculator, like a TI-30X, or the HP 35S are good ideas.

E-MAIL: E-mail correspondence with the instructor is encouraged. That said, office hours are far more effective! When e-mailing the instructor and/or TA, please use your official GU account (to protect student privacy). E-mails received from other providers (Gmail, Yahoo, Hotmail, etc.) will be ignored and deleted. Please INCLUDE YOUR NAME AND A SUBJECT LINE IN ALL correspondence! Lastly, please consider all sources of information prior to sending an e-mail.

LAPTOPS: Use of laptops during the lectures is permitted ONLY by prior arrangement with me. If permitted, you will be required to sit in the last row of the lecture hall.

LECTURE TIME: I have requested two hours for this course, which is much longer than the normal allocation of time. This additional allocation provides flexibility; as the course progresses I may finish a lecture in less than two hours or skip a day if the course is on schedule.

HONOR CODE: In the pursuit of the high ideals and rigorous standards of academic life, I commit myself to respect and uphold the Georgetown University Honor System: To be honest in any academic endeavor, and To conduct myself honorably, as a responsible member of the Georgetown community, as we live and work together.

Infringement will be reported and procedures followed.
