Goals and Contents of the Course

This course focuses upon the topic of negotiations and conflict resolution in the context of the Arab-Israeli conflict since 1977 to the present. The course is divided into four parts. First, we will present the general theoretical framework for explaining and understanding negotiations in international relations. Second, we will refer in general terms to the history of the Arab-Israeli conflict and the main issues and patterns of negotiations. Third, we will address several case-studies of successes and failures of negotiations between Israel and its several Arab neighbors – Egypt, Syria, Lebanon, Jordan, and the Palestinians. In this context, we will attempt to understand the failure of the peace process between Israelis and Palestinians. Finally, in the last part of the course we will play a simulation and students will present their short papers.

Students Assignments and grades

Students‘ assignments include the following:

A. Active participation in the course, which is based upon an interactive dynamics and intensive reading of theoretical, historical, and “actuality” texts. The attendance policy includes attendance in 80% of the classes (sixteen sessions). Missing classes beyond the number of permitted absences will negatively affect the grade assigned to participation in class (which is 30% of the final grade).

B. Submission of a paper of about 15 pages, from a list of topics that will be distributed the first week of class. Students will present the outline of their paper in the last week of classes. Papers are due on the last day of class, they should be submitted in a hard copy until noon on August 9th at the Department of Government, ICC, 6th Floor, and also emailed to amk43@georgetown.edu in Word format please.

C. Graduate students (participants of GOVT 448-25) will perform additional assignments, as part of their class participation. They will submit at least two “actuality reports” (1-2 pages each), regarding issues that will be discussed in the course of the seminar, agreed upon with the Instructor.

The grade will be distributed as follows:

A. Class participation 30%
B. Final paper 70%

Accommodation for students with disabilities
Students with disabilities are strongly encouraged to contact the Academic Resource Center (ARC, Leavey Center, Suite 335; 202-687-8354; arc@georgetown.edu) before the start of classes to allow that office time to review their documentation and to make recommendations for appropriate accommodations, including note takers, books on tape, extended time on the final exam, interpreting services, and enlarged texts among others. The procedure for requesting an accommodation can be found online at ldss.georgetown.edu/procedure.cfm, and a list of possible accommodations can be found at ldss.Georgetown.edu/services.cfm.

The Georgetown University Honor Code and Honor System
All students are required to abide by the Honor System regardless of whether or not they have been required to state or write it, or whether they are visiting students. The Honor System includes detailed provisions for investigating and adjudicating allegations of academic misconduct. The Honor Code and Honor System will be respected throughout the course, and especially with reference to the term paper, that should be an original piece of research immune of any attempt of copy or plagiarism.
