

GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY
School of Continuing Studies

HIST 007 Intro to Early History: Europe I

Location: This course is conducted entirely online, which means students do not have to be on campus to complete any portion of it. Students will participate in the course using Georgetown University's online learning management system called Canvas. To learn more about Canvas, please go through the Canvas Guide for Students.

Professor: Michael Polczyński, PhD

Professor Contact Information: mjp225@georgetown.edu

Virtual Office Hours: By appointment via Zoom

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will examine European history from 800-1800, during which time the peoples of Europe gained essential traits that continue to inform modern identities around the globe today. Social, cultural, political, intellectual, economic, and religious themes will be addressed. This course also aims to help students think historically and understand the process of historical reasoning and analysis. Lecture material and assigned readings of both primary and secondary material will allow students to discuss and analyze questions related to the creation of historical narrative. Credits: 3

COURSE LEARNING GOALS

1. Engage and access pre-modern modes of thought and circumscription that will, in turn, allow them to appreciate and understand places, peoples, and cultures of various eras and regions apart from their own.
2. Think critically about history, not as a collection of self-evident facts, but as the interpretation, based on evidence, of human experiences, interactions, and relationships as they change over time.
3. Identify and evaluate primary sources, use them critically as evidence to build historical interpretations, and engage critically with secondary source material.

4. Write critically and thoughtfully on a variety of subjects.

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING CRITERIA

GRADED ASSIGNMENTS

1. VoiceThread Presentation (10%)

Each student is responsible for presenting on one movie during this course. Students will sign up for these movies during the Canvas orientation module. Presentations are due on Wednesdays, 11:59 PM ET. Late work will not be accepted. When it is your turn to create a presentation about a film with VoiceThread, you will be graded on the following:

- Offer an analysis of the major themes that are taken up by the film. Do not offer a summary.
- Pose Two thoughtful questions that can be addressed by your fellow students in the weekly discussion. These questions should seek to connect the film to the weekly readings and lecture material in meaningful ways.

- Your VoiceThread presentation should be 3 to 4 minutes in length. Be creative!

Posting your presentations requires the use of VoiceThread. For assistance with VoiceThread, visit the VoiceThread instruction for Canvas.

2. Weekly Film Discussions (10%)

Every week all students (including those who create VoiceThread presentations) must take part in discussion of the assigned films. All discussion must be completed by midnight on Fridays, 11:59 PM ET. Late work will not be accepted. You will be graded based on the following:

- Respond to the questions posed in your classmates' VoiceThread presentation on this week's film.
- For full credit, you must respond to all of the posted questions.

3. Short Response Papers (25%)

Every week, students will write a 2 to 3-page double-spaced paper responding to a prompt given to you on Canvas. These papers are due Sundays, 11:59 PM ET. Late work will not be accepted. You will be graded based on how well you respond to the prompt.

For assistance with uploading weekly papers, visit the Canvas Guides.

4. Midterm Exam (25%)

You will have ninety (90) minutes to complete each exam. Your midterm exam will consist of three short-answer questions. Your answers should be 2-4 paragraphs each in length and must provide brief but thorough responses to the questions that are provided.

5. Final Paper Exam (30%)

Your final exam will consist of one long-form essay question. Your response must be a full essay with an introduction, main body, and conclusion and must respond thoroughly to the question.

For both exams, you will be graded based on how well you answer the questions by integrating course material from the lectures, readings, and films that have been assigned.

Word Processing Software: You must use a word processing software for your writing assignments. You may use Word, or access and use Google Docs with your GU NetID. Please double-check your spelling, grammar, punctuation, and organization as it may affect your grade. I recommend you do not write from your phone.

Citation Style: This course uses Chicago style for all writing and research assignments. Resources for this citation style are available through Georgetown Library Citation Guide.

Late Work Submission Policy: Late work will not be accepted.

Important Notice: All faculty are required to document a student's academic activity at the beginning of each course. In order to document that you began this course, please complete the “Module 1 Writing Assignment” academic activity by the end of the first week of classes or as soon as possible after adding the course. Failure to do so may result in a delay in the disbursement of your financial aid.

GRADING OPTIONS

Students will have the option to choose one of two grading frameworks for Summer 2020 courses, either

1. a letter grade, or
2. Satisfactory (S); Credit (CR); or No-credit(NC): (S=grades A through C; CR=C-, D+, D; NC=F)

Students can make this choice in MyAccess beginning up until the last day of classes. The choice to take a class S/CR/NC can apply to any course: Core, major, minor, certificate or free elective. The choice can be made without permission from the deans (per the usual process). The S/CR/NC options will not be counted toward the stated maximum of student's degree programs (e.g., “six” as outlined in the Undergraduate Bulletin). The withdrawal date will also be extended to the last day of classes. A transcript notation will explain that S/CR/NC was instituted because of the 2020 COVID-19 pandemic.

GRADING SCHEME

93 - 100% = A
90 - 93% = A-
87 - 90% = B+
83 - 87% = B
80 - 83% = B-
77 - 80% = C+

73 - 77% = C
70 - 73% = C
67 - 70% = D+
60 - 67% = D
60% or below = F

COURSE SCHEDULE

Please read this section to review module topics. You are required to move through each module in sequential order. Beginning with Module 2, each module will be released (unlocked) on Sunday, 11:59PM ET before its start date.

Each week you will have readings, lectures, and an assigned film. You will also complete assignments including a presentation, discussions, weekly writing assignments, and two exams.

- You will have a presentation during the semester. If it is your turn, post your 3-4 minute presentation on the weekly film using VoiceThread. This is due Wednesday, 11:59 PM ET of your assigned week.
- Participation in the weekly discussions on Canvas is due Fridays, 11:59 PM ET.
- Written assignments are due Sunday nights, 11:59 PM ET.

- There will be a mid-term exam at the end of week four, due Sunday at 11:59 PM ET and the final exam is at the end of the course. You can elect to take the final exam any time on July 23–July 24. Mark your calendars.

INFORMATION ABOUT TOOLS AND TECHNICAL REQUIREMENTS

As an online student your "classroom" experience will be very different than a traditional student. As part of your online experience, you can expect to:

1. Communicate with your professor and classmates regularly via email, discussion boards, and other platforms.
2. Navigate the internet using a web browser (note that certain tools may require a specific browser).
3. Use office applications such as Microsoft Office or Google Docs to create documents..
4. Submit assignments in Canvas.
5. Upload and download saved files (including text, audio, and video).
6. Use a microphone to record audio.
7. Use an internal or external camera to record video.

TOOLS AND TECHNICAL SUPPORT

In this course, we will use Canvas, BlinkLearning, Proctorio, VoiceThread and Zoom.

- Canvas. An online space that allows professors to post your grades, share information, and add online assignments. It gives you access to your class content and tools in order to complete the course. As an online student you have 24/7 access to Canvas technical support, including Canvas live chat and support hotline at 855-338-2770. In Canvas, click the "Help" icon in the far-left Canvas menu. A Canvas window will show you all available support and feedback options. If you're looking for help on a specific feature, check out the Canvas Student Guide.
- VoiceThread: This collaborative tool offers video, voice, and text commenting. To get started, review the Getting Started with VoiceThread page. For support, you can find more guides or request help on the VoiceThread at Georgetown page.

- Zoom. This live video-conferencing tool enables users to conduct live discussions, presentations, lectures, office hours, etc. via audio, video, text chat, and content sharing. You can also use it to create audio or video recordings. Visit the Web Conferencing with Zoom page if you have technical issues.

COMPUTER REQUIREMENTS

- You will need access to a computer (Windows or Mac) and adequate Internet service to complete this course. Although you can use other devices such as smartphones and tablets for some online coursework, please note that some tools, such as Proctorio, do not work on tablets or smartphones.
- You will also need an internal or external microphone and camera to complete this course. While you can use any browser to access Canvas please note that some tools only work with certain browsers (e.g., Proctorio only works with Chrome). The minimum requirements needed to use Canvas can be found in this Canvas guide.

COURSE POLICIES AND EXPECTATIONS

STUDENT EXPECTATIONS

This course consists of 8 modules. You are expected to complete all readings, assignments, and activities on time. Participation is essential to your success in this class. Students are expected to actively participate in discussions with your peers, and contribute to the group assignments. It is important to subscribe to the course discussion boards so that you receive notifications when new messages are posted. In order to get full credit for participation, you will have to complete all of your module assignments and quizzes on time.

This is a reading-heavy course. In order to succeed it is recommended that you begin reading as early as possible each week.

Some of these films contain violent scenes. You are not required to watch scenes that make you uncomfortable.

TIME EXPECTATIONS

Our online classes are designed to meet the same academic standards as our place-based (face-to-face) courses. You can think of each module equal to the same level of participation, commitment, and academic rigor as a face-to-face class. Students should plan on spending approximately 10-12 hours per week on the work for each online module.

COMMUNICATION EXPECTATIONS

Communication with Peers and with Professor

You will be expected to engage with your peers via VoiceThread and discussions on a regular basis.

Students should check their e-mail regularly. Please use the following guidelines when sending academic and professional related communication:

- Check the syllabus. Before sending your e-mail or message, be sure that your question has not already been addressed in the syllabus or an announcement.
- Use the preferred medium. Double check in the syllabus or orientation to see whether email or Canvas message is your professor's preferred medium.
- Be patient. You will receive a response within 48 hours on business days. Please do not wait until the night before an assignment is due to ask a question. Please allow 48-72 hours for assessment submission feedback
- Use a clear subject line. The subject line should include the topic of the message and the class title.
- Greet & close. E-mail and Canvas messages should begin with a formal greeting and end with a closing as well as your name.
- Check your writing. Proofread (i.e. grammar and spelling) your message before sending.

Netiquette Guidelines

To promote the highest degree of education possible, we ask each student to respect the opinions and thoughts of other students and be courteous in the way that you choose to express yourself. Students should be respectful and considerate of all opinions.

In order for us to have meaningful discussions, we must learn to genuinely try to understand what others are saying and be open-minded about others' opinions. If you want to persuade someone to see things differently, it is much more effective to do so in a polite, non-threatening way rather than to do so antagonistically. Everyone has insights to offer based on his/her experiences, and we can all learn from each other. Civility is essential.

ACCOMMODATIONS

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, individuals with disabilities have the right to specific accommodations that do not fundamentally alter the nature of the course. Some accommodations might include note takers, books on tape, extended time on assignments, and interpreter services among others. Students are responsible for communicating their needs to the Academic Resource Center, the office that oversees disability support services, (202-687-8354; arc@georgetown.edu; <https://academicsupport.georgetown.edu/disability/>) before the start of classes to allow time to review the documentation and make recommendations for appropriate accommodations. The University is not responsible for making special accommodations for students who have not declared their disabilities and have not requested an accommodation in a timely manner. Also, the University need not modify course or degree requirements considered to be an essential requirement of the program of instruction. For the most current and up-to-date policy information, please refer to the Georgetown University Academic Resource Center website. Students are highly encouraged to discuss the documentation and accommodation process with an Academic Resource Center administrator.

ACCESSIBILITY AND INCLUSION

I am committed to creating a learning environment for my students that supports a diversity of thoughts, perspectives and experiences, and honors your identities (including race, gender, class, sexuality, religion, ability, etc.).

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Students at Georgetown University are expected to maintain the highest standards of academic and personal integrity. Although most Georgetown students conduct themselves in accordance with these standards, occasionally, there are students who violate the code of conduct. Cheating harms the University community in many ways. For example, honest students are frustrated by the unfairness of cheating that goes undetected and students who cheat can skew the grading curve in a class, resulting in lower grades for students who worked hard and did their own work.

Academic dishonesty in any form is a serious offense, and students found in violation are subject to academic penalties that include, but are not limited to failure of the course, termination from the program, and revocation of degrees already conferred. All students are expected to fully adhere to the policies and procedures of Georgetown's Honor System and to take the Honor Code Pledge.

HONOR CODE PLEDGE

In pursuit of the high ideals and rigorous standards of academic life I commit myself to respect and to uphold the Georgetown University honor system; to live out a commitment to integrity in all my words and actions; to be honest in every academic endeavor; and to conduct myself honorably, as a responsible member of the Georgetown community as we live and work together; to live out the ideals of Georgetown University I commit myself to be a person for others in my daily life, respectful of difference and disagreement; To care for this venerable campus and all of those with whom I share it; and to fulfill in all ways the trust placed in me to carry on the Georgetown tradition.

PLAGIARISM

Stealing someone else's work is a terminal offense in the workplace, and it will wreck your career in academia, too. Students are expected to work with integrity and honesty in all their assignments. The Georgetown University Honor System defines plagiarism as "the act of passing off as one's own the ideas or writings of another." More guidance is available through the Gervase Programs. If you have any doubts about plagiarism, paraphrasing, and the need to credit, check out Plagiarism.org.

All submissions must be your original work. Any submission suspected of plagiarism will be immediately referred to the Honor Council for investigation and possible adjudication. All students are expected to follow Georgetown's honor code unconditionally. If you have not done so, please read the honor code material located online at the Honor Council website.

SUPPORT SERVICES

Georgetown recognizes that COVID-19 has a significant impact on everyone in the Georgetown community. Georgetown offers a variety of support services for students that can be accessed online and has put together this newsletter which aims to provide you with information about well-being resources and virtual meetings that can connect you with mental health professionals on and off campus during this time. Below are some resources available to you:

- Academic Resource Center

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Georgetown University and its faculty are committed to supporting survivors and those impacted by sexual misconduct, which includes sexual assault, sexual harassment, relationship violence, and stalking. Georgetown requires faculty members, unless otherwise designated as confidential, to report all disclosures of sexual misconduct to the University Title IX Coordinator or a Deputy Title IX Coordinator. If you disclose an incident of sexual misconduct to a professor in or outside of the classroom (with the exception of disclosures in papers), that faculty member must report the incident to the Title IX Coordinator, or Deputy Title IX Coordinator. The coordinator, will, in turn, reach out to the student to provide support, resources, and the option to meet. [Please note that the student is not required to meet with the Title IX coordinator.].

More information about reporting options and resources can be found on the Sexual Misconduct Website.

TITLE IX PREGNANCY MODIFICATIONS AND ADJUSTMENTS

Georgetown University is committed to creating an accessible and inclusive environment for pregnant and parenting students. Students may request adjustments based on general pregnancy needs or accommodations based on a pregnancy-related complication. SCS students must complete the Pregnancy Adjustment Request Form and submit it to the SCS Deputy Title IX Coordinator at titleixscs@georgetown.edu. Upon receiving the completed form, the Deputy Title IX Coordinator will schedule a meeting with the student to discuss the requested adjustments and implementation process. More information about pregnancy modifications can be found on the Title IX at Georgetown University Website. Georgetown Library If you have a question for a librarian you can go to their "Ask Us" page where you will have the option to chat online, send an email, or schedule a Zoom appointment to discuss a research topic, develop a search strategy, or examine resources for projects and papers. Librarians offer an overview of and in-depth assistance with important resources for senior or master's theses, dissertations, papers and other types of research. This service is available to currently enrolled students who need assistance with Georgetown-assigned projects and papers. Please review the Services & Resources Guide for Online Students for additional information.

GEORGETOWN LIBRARY

If you have a question for a librarian you can go to their "Ask Us" page where you will have the option to chat online, send an email, or schedule a Zoom appointment to discuss a research topic, develop a search strategy, or examine resources for projects and papers. Librarians offer an overview of and in-depth assistance with important resources for senior or master's theses, dissertations, papers and other types of research. eRESOURCES

Students enrolled in courses have access to the University Library System's eResources, including 500+ research databases, 1.5+ million ebooks, and thousands of periodicals and other multimedia files (films, webinars, music, and images). You can access these resources through the Library's Homepage by using your NetID and password.

LEARNING RESOURCES

Georgetown offers a host of learning resources to its students. Two that you might find particularly helpful in this course are the Writing Center and Refworks.

- The Writing Center offers peer tutoring by trained graduate and undergraduate students who can assist you at any point in the writing process. They help at any stage of your writing process, from brainstorming to revision. The Writing Center will not proofread or edit papers; rather, they will help to improve your proofreading and editing skills to become a better writer. Appointments can be booked online through their website.

- Refworks is an online research management tool that aids in organizing, storing, and presenting citation sources for papers and projects.
