

Exploring Career Paths in Real Estate

Thursday, April 28, 2016

6:00–8:30 p.m.

followed by a networking reception

RSVP at scs.georgetown.edu/realestatecareers

Free and open to the public.
RSVP is recommended.

Moderated by:

Glenn Williamson, FRICS

Faculty Director,
MPS in Real Estate Program

Panelists:

Calvin Gladney

Managing Partner,
Mosaic Urban Partners
and MPRE Faculty

Julian
Josephs, FRICS

President,
Julian Josephs Company
and MPRE Faculty

Joanna Shapiro

Managing Director,
Global Client Management,
BNY Mellon and
MPRE Faculty/Alumna

John Walker

Specialist Leader,
Real Estate &
Location Strategy,
Deloitte

An industry panel and networking reception brought to you by the

Master's in Real Estate Program

“Exploring Career Paths in Real Estate” aims to help students consider career choices and to identify options and opportunities to meet their short- and long-term employment goals. With a focus on pluses and minuses for career paths within smaller entrepreneurial initiatives versus those within larger established organizations, the discussion will highlight the sequencing of career decisions and how the industry context impacts your choices.

GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF CONTINUING STUDIES

640 Massachusetts Ave NW, Washington, DC 20001

scs.georgetown.edu/realestatecareers