

GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY
School of Continuing Studies
Center for Continuing and Professional Education

Veterans Benefits – Eligible Noncredit Programs

The following certificate programs are eligible for funding through the Department of Veterans Affairs under the Post-9/11 GI Bill (Chapter 33), Montgomery GI Bill (Chapter 30), and Vocational Rehabilitation (Chapter 31) programs.

Eligible Certificate Programs:

Budget and Finance
Business Administration
Corporate Finance
Cybersecurity Strategy
Data Science
Digital Marketing
Early Intervention
Education Policy & Program Evaluation
Facilitation*
Financial Planning
Forensic Accounting
Franchise Management
Health Coaching
International Business Management
International Migration Studies
Leadership Coaching
Marketing
Organizational Consulting and Change Leadership
Paralegal Studies
Project Management
Social Media Management
Strategic Diversity and Inclusion Management
Strategy and Performance Management
Transformational Leadership

* These specific certificate programs are currently pending approval. Students are not able to use VA education benefits in these programs at this time. Please contact CCPE staff at ccpevabenefits@georgetown.edu for more information.